Should the buyer find that the vehicle does not meet his/her needs upon viewing, we can either do an item swop (offer or source another vehicle better suited) or we will refund the full reservation amount that was paid.

Should the buyer have inspected the vehicle and advised the Dealership to continue with the processing of the vehicle the Standard Reservation Document should be signed by the buyer. The buyer will then be bound to the Terms & Conditions as set out in that document. Should the buyer then decide to cancel the transaction, the reservation fee will be used towards re-advertising the vehicle and recuperating losses associated with processing the vehicle unnecessarily and possibly showing other qualified buyers away, in the event of a transaction adhering to all the necessary T&C's for reservation. Any monies paid towards customer specific fitment/repair by the Dealership, after a processing fee is paid by the buyer, will be for the buyers account. Minimum reservation fee to be forfeited upon cancellation by the buyer is R3000 or 3% of the vehicle' advertised price (per 7 days) after a processing fee was paid, whichever is the greatest.
